BIO – Lowell Sandoval, Chief Executive Officer, spgFix LLC.

At spgFix LLC, we harness the vast experiences of our CEO to empower our clients. His entrepreneurial roots, beginning with ventures as early as selling meat tenderizers at eight, transitioning through varied roles in hospitality, and culminating in key corporate positions with giants like Microsoft, Intel, and others, equip us with a deep understanding of business dynamics. His contributions to landmark projects, such as the Alaska Airlines' satellite Wi-Fi launch, and collaborations with industry leaders like Disney, T-Mobile, and Google, demonstrate the breadth of his expertise.

Leveraging our CEO's rich background, spgFix LLC is uniquely positioned to offer unparalleled business insights to its clients. Recognizing that successful businesses are driven by a delicate balance of assets, liabilities, and human emotions, we are committed to helping clients navigate growth effectively, sidestep challenges, and maximize their value proposition. With spgFix LLC, clients tap into a legacy of innovation and proven strategies, ensuring their ventures flourish in an ever-evolving business landscape.
